

BLOMBERG LEGAL & TAX ADVISES ODEWALD KMU II ON INVESTMENT IN ARTUS

Munich, Germany; 27 June 2019

BLOMBERG founders Alexander Pupeter and Svetlana Heil provided tax advice to Odewald KMU II on their acquisition of a majority stake in ARTUS, a damage restoration company.

ARTUS is a regional leader in the restoration of damage. ARTUS Gesellschaft für Brand- und Wasserschadensanierung mbH – a limited liability company that restores damage caused by fire or water – was founded in 2012. It employs some 100 people at its headquarters in Langenhagen (near Hanover) and seven other sites. In order to help further advance their company, ARTUS founders Josef Bölle and Hendrik Poppinga have entered into a partnership with Odewald KMU II.

Odewald KMU II Fund manages EUR 200 million and invests in high-growth, medium-sized companies distinguished by German engineering excellence, intelligent services, and healthcare.

As with previous investments, BLOMBERG handled tax structuring for Odewald KMU II.
