

BLOMBERG advises Odewald on investment in digitisation expert ctrl QS

Munich, Germany; 12 September 2021

Together with another investor, ODEWALD KMU II has acquired a majority stake in digitization expert ctrl QS in Berlin. The founder, Mirja Silverman, will continue to serve the company as a managing partner.

ctrl QS GmbH Rollout Management for Digital Projects is a specialised service provider advising multinational corporations and brands on process, tool and change management in the context of digital projects, providing operational support for the digital transformation of business models and processes. An in-depth understanding of clients' processes and challenges, as well as the many years of experience in successfully managing cross-system digital projects are key competitive advantages of ctrl QS. In its core market, ctrl QS already occupies a leading market position. The company, based in Berlin, was founded in 2009 and today employs over 100 people.

Odewald KMU is one of the leading investment partners for succession solutions and growth financing in the German speaking countries. Odewald KMU II Fund manages EUR 200 million and invests in high-growth, medium-sized companies. It focuses on companies characterised by German engineering excellence, intelligent services, healthcare as well as software/IT.

BLOMBERG Legal & Tax (Alexander Pupeter and Svetlana Heil) provided tax advice to Odewald for this transaction.
